The Police have stated that they will take action at their discretion. STRICTLY no illegal parking or obstruction of the street facing the Masjid. Please park in the car-park allocated. Excellent manners should be employed at all times with other conference attendees, neighbours, members of the public and the local community – let us set a noble example in the call to Allaah. The “Salafi Bookstore” is located at 472 Coventry Rd, directly parallel to the Masjid, it will be open from 10am till 10pm. Sisters very welcome anytime. Since this conference is free for all, you should know that much expense is incurred in organizing our da’wah activities. We also ask that you make each other welcome and establish the ties of brotherhood (and sisterhood) throughout the conference. Conferences are remembered both for the knowledge disseminated and the love and brotherhood established within them. Please prepare yourselves for unavoidable changes in the program! May Allaah bless you and we welcome you to our Masjid and Islamic Centre.
