

Numbers are

FUN!

WRITTEN BY ABOO IBRAAHEEM HAARON BIN SAAJIDUR-RAHMAAN

أبو إبراهيم هارون بن ساجد الرحمان

Note for parents

Objectives:

To secure the Arabic numbers from 1 to 10.

To pronounce Arabic numbers correctly.

Outcome:

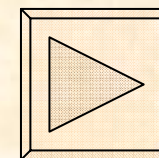

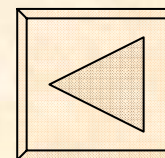

The child can recall the Arabic numbers, when the appropriate number is shown.

The child is able to pronounce Arabic numbers correctly.

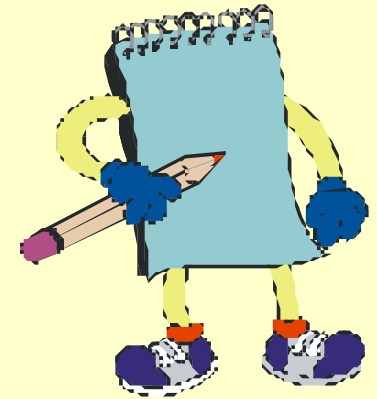

Can count using the Arabic numbers from 1 to 10.

Resources: Numbers are FUN! Colouring Book 1 and 2.

Download from: www.al-miftaah.com

Do some counting everyday.

Count the buttons on your coat.

Count the cars on your road.

Count the flowers in your garden.

Count the stars in the sky.

Note for parent: Encourage your child to count the cars on each page (in Arabic).

